

For Clerk Of The Courts

HOBART E. PAYNE

Mr. Payne today formally announced his candidacy for re-election as clerk of the Circuit and Criminal Courts of McDowell County, an office he has filled capably for the past two terms.

NEWS BRIEFS

Among the representative men who left Keystone this week for the celebrated Joe Louis-Schmeling fight may be mentioned Dr. J. E. Brown who has just returned from Cleveland, Ohio, where he witnessed the graduation of his daughter, Miss Anna The Doctor went by way of the old homestead in Rhaway New Jersey, where he spent a day with his mother.

Mr. Dave Fitz, of this city, perhaps one of the most outstanding baseball, horse race and pugilistic game follower and admirer in McDowell co., left Sunday where he was the outstanding guest and popular sportsman at the Arena. He too was a Joe Louis admirer and supporter.

Mr. George Brown of Kimball, one of the leading and successful business men of Kimball, and perhaps one of the most widely known railroad men in the state—having retired, spent several hours visiting friends in Keystone, Northfork and Landgraft Monday of this week.

J. E. Hakin, of Landgraft, one of the old war-horses, always reliable, belonging to a number of old men always trusted as "Reliable" like himself, Big Bill Kelley, Bob Carter and Wylie Ward, all four of whom have been there for many years are such men as the people, both white and colored, can and do always trust. They are there and are Johnnie's-on-the-spot watch ing every interest of the Republican party and are there patting themselves on the back at the wholesome information about the return to the fold of Republicanism those who thoughtlessly and ill-advisedly a well as unintentionally left the Republican party a few years ago.

Attorney Harry J. Capehart has been busy this week attending Federal Court in Bluefield.

Hon. John Durate (Spaniard) one of the most reliable, hospitable and generous white men in the county of McDowell, an account of whom will soon appear in this paper in a few days, was in West making some strong and beneficial researches for the poor people this week.

Attorney Leon P. Miller of this county, former assistant Prosecuting Attorney for McDowell county was looking after and adjusting some business matters this week in Keystone and Northfork.

To Point Pleasant on Visit

A number of home folks in McDowell, particularly from Kimball and Keystone, left this week for Point Pleasant, W. Va. where they are to be guests of Mason county good folks for a few days. Among those who made this pleasant trip, all filled with glory over the victory of Joe Louis over Schmeling may be mentioned Mesdames Mamie L. A. Craft of Kimball, Ida E. Whittico of Keystone and Miss Barbara White and John Franklin of Kimball, they made the trip in the automobile of Prof. Franklin.

SUMMER SCHOOL GETS UNDER WAY AT W. VA. STATE; MUCH INTEREST

Institute, W. Va., June 16.—The opening week of the summer school at West Virginia State college which began June 15th revealed new interest on the part of teachers-in-service and teachers-in-training. Through the cooperation of the department of education of Ohio State University, the services of Prof. Holsenbeck and five other experts from the Ohio State U. have been secured for the summer to offer courses in contrasting the traditional and progressive points of view in education. The enrollees of the summer session are expressing great interest and enthusiasm in the progressive educational courses which are being offered. Those courses fill a need among the Negro teachers of West Virginia.

Prof. Holsenbeck and the other experts are scheduled to teach at the State college summer school during the first 3rd, fifth, seventh and eighth weeks of the nine weeks summer session, and will be available to all of the summer session students for special conferences and private interviews, as well as class-room interviews.

SOCIAL SECURITY ACT
CLARIFIED

In an effort to insure seasonal or part time workers against the loss of any benefits that may accrue to their credit, Mr. U. A. Knapp, Manager of the Charleston Field Office of the Social Security Board, has issued the following suggestions for the guidance of employees:

1. Keep the name and address of each employer for whom you work, as well as the record of your own wage-earnings, in every job you hold.

2. Make your account number known to every employer for whom you have worked since the last day of December, 1936. Whatever wages or salary you may earn in any job, covered by the act, after the last day of 1936 and before you reach the age of 65 (or die), should be credited to your social security account. The law requires each employer to report your wages so that you may get the full amount of benefits due you. If your employer does not know your number he cannot make a report that will assure a correct record of your wages.

3. You should have only one social security account number. If you lose your account card, ask the social security board office for a duplicate. Do not get a new number—DO NOT GET A NEW NUMBER! If you have more than one number, keep the first one issued to you, but send the other cards to the Manager of Your Social Security Board field Office to be cancelled. Tell him you are returning the extra numbers which were issued to you by mistake. Also tell him the number which was first issued to you.

4. Write down your social security account number in the family bible or write it on a slip of paper and file it away with other valuable papers. The Social Security Act offers you old-age protection. Hold on to your account card.

Rivers Turns Many Wheels

The Merrimac river in New England is said to turn more factory wheels than any other stream in the world.

Unusual Race of Wild Geese

An unusual race of wild geese is said to exist in British Columbia and south-eastern Alaska. They are known locally as white-checked geese and resemble the well-known Canada goose in many respects, being approximately the same size but much darker in plumage. They also differ from other geese species in that they are reluctant to migrate south in the fall and many remain to spend their entire life in the northern range.
